

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of abuse of the public trust. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and should be obligated to serve the public interest.

Their decision to air a 90-minute long anti-Kerry documentary right before the election is a blatantly partisan and unfair tactic that should not be allowed.

Broadcasters should not be allowed to air propaganda right before the election. This sort of action is illegal in Australia (where I was born) and it should be illegal here. Please take whatever action necessary to prevent this abuse of the public's airwaves for a cheap political smear.
